🤝 Handover

This section is designed for preparing the client handover once the project ends, including any required details for future developments, deployment, or shutting down of services etc. It is intended to document the artifacts which will eventually be provided to the client.